

2022 AKO PANUKU PROFESSIONAL LEARNING SUPPORT

PROVISIONALLY CERTIFICATED TEACHERS
Online Support Programme

Feedback and reflections are an integral part of your induction and mentoring programme. They should be a normal part of your teaching practice.

How many observations are required and what do these look like?

What is good feedback?

Where do I document reflections and feedback?

HUI 5: BEING A REFLECTIVE PRACTITIONER

- What is good feedback?
- How do I use feedback to inform my next steps?
- How often do I need to reflect?

TARGET AUDIENCE: Primary and secondary kaiako who are beginning teachers or in a mentoring position.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- Increase your knowledge and understanding of what good feedback is
- Normalising reflection as part of your teaching practice
- Using feedback and reflections to plan

WHEN AND WHERE:

	Date	Duration
Online	Tuesday 30 August	3.30 – 4.15

COURSE FACILITATORS

Dee Reid

Miriama Harmer

Beth Dixon